Hello People

I hope all of you had a great Christmas and a great New Years Day. Since these holidays have just passed us then that can only mean one thing. Our holiday is almost here, the annual AMA convention Jan. 13th -15th.

Due to Thursday night being the time we need to set up our booth at the AMA show we had to push the meeting up one day to Wednesday the 11th. We need as many of you as possible to come to the Jan. 2006 meeting since we will need to coordinate who will do what at that weekends show. Also this is our election meeting and we will be needing several new officers. At this point we will need a new Vice President, Secretary, Field directors for both Green Spot and Glen Helen, a new Newsletter Editor and ????? So if you have any inclination to get involved or know who would like to be please come to the meeting or else Chuck and I are going to divide all the money up and close the doors. The last part was just a joke but if you read this far congratulations, now please come to the meeting.

George
